Megan Padden-Shin began her educational career over fifteen years ago as a college-level French and Spanish tutor. She has since taught students from age three through adult in a variety of areas including English, French, Spanish, math, science, and social studies. Padden-Shin has also run several SAT test prep programs over the last decade both in-person and online. Padden-Shin currently owns and operates O.W.L. Educational Services which provides tutoring, academic consulting, and more for students of all ages. O.W.L. Educational Services was also recognized in 2020 and 2021 as a top 5 finalist in The Free Lance-Star's Best of the Burg for "Best Tutoring Service." In 2020, O.W.L. Educational Services launched an online grade 6-12 homeschooling program called "Our Wisdom Leads Academy" which promotes "learning at your student's pace."

A native of Massachusetts, Padden-Shin earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English with a concentration in education and minors in both French and Spanish from Westfield State University in 2009. In 2014, she earned a Master of Science in Education from Walden University. She holds a post-graduate professional license in English along with a TESOL certification.

Professionally, she has presented on pedagogy and learning styles. These have included: "Vocabulary Instruction for Gifted Learners" at the 2017 National Curriculum Network Conference and "Language with the Five Senses" at the 2019 American Association of Teachers of French Conference. Padden-Shin has also presented original written works including a tribute to Kurt Vonnegut entitled "The Fall" at the 2008 Sigma Tau Delta Convention. In July 2020, she was a guest featured in Book Smart Prep's Blog and was featured on the Cool Cat Teacher podcast in September 2020.

Padden-Shin is a member of the Fredericksburg Regional Chamber of Commerce and the American Independent Business Coalition. She is a proud member of several organizations including Kiwanis of Fredericksburg. She is a member of several honor societies including Sigma Tau Delta, Golden Key, and the National Society of Leadership and Success (Sigma Alpha Pi). She was also recognized in 2009 as a "Who's Who in Collegiate Faculty" for her work in creating and implementing an SAT reading and writing class for high school students in Western Massachusetts.
